

What IP do I have in my business?

Trade Marks

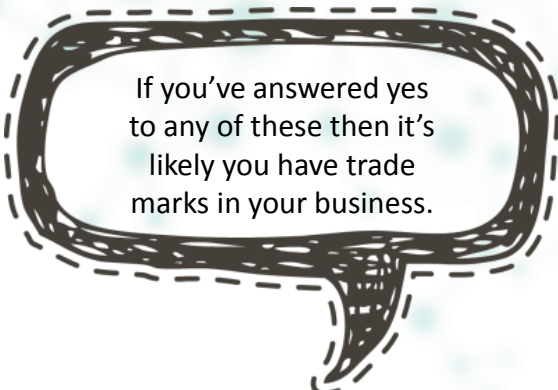

Do you have:

A distinctive company name?

Product or Service names/brands

Do you use:

Distinctive logos?

If you've answered yes to any of these then it's likely you have trade marks in your business.

Copyright

Do you have:

Computer software?

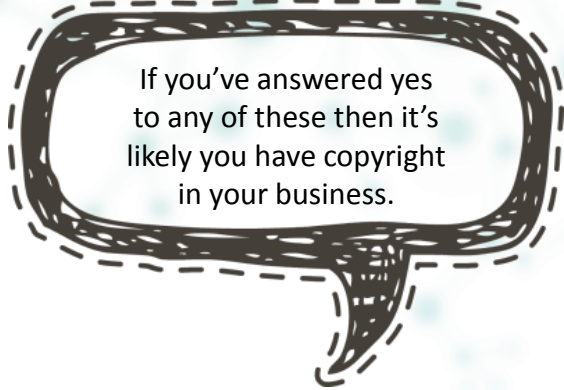

Databases?

Sales literature?

Advertisements?

User manuals?

Any literary, artistic, musical material?

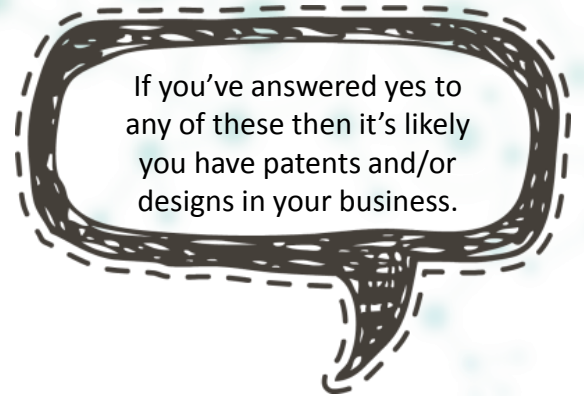

If you've answered yes to any of these then it's likely you have copyright in your business.

Patents & Designs

Do you have:

Unique or innovative products or ways of making them?

I've identified the IP in my business- what do I do now?

Your free initial consultation

Wynne-Jones IP are offering entrepreneurs free initial consultations to help you on identifying IP in your business and provide recommendations on what IP you should be protecting.

To get clued up on IP in your business, arrange your free initial consultation now.

Get in touch

Don Pennant

don.pennant@wynne-jones.com

01242 267 600

Consultations can be carried out face to face, over the phone or through Skype.