Information given on The Pioneer's Toolkit

The content on The Pioneer's Toolkit is provided by us and by other contributors for general information only. It is not intended to amount to advice on which you should rely. You must obtain professional or specialist advice before taking, or refraining from, any action on the basis of the content on The Pioneer's Toolkit.

We make no representations, warranties or guarantees, whether express or implied that the content on The Pioneer's Toolkit is accurate, complete or up to date.

Responsibility for websites linked to posts in The Pioneer's Toolkit

Where posts on The Pioneer's Toolkit contain links to other sites and resources provided by third parties, these links are provided for your information only. Such links should not be interpreted as approval by us of those linked websites or information you may obtain from them. We have no control over the contents of those sites or resources.

Moderation of the material posted on The Pioneer's Toolkit

Wynne-Jones IP Ltd is a moderator and sharer of the content provided by you, the contributor. Although The Pioneer's Toolkit is moderated by Wynne-Jones IP Limited, we are under no obligation to you or any other person to oversee, monitor or moderate The Pioneer's Toolkit or any other service we provide on our site and we may stop moderating The Pioneer's Toolkit at any time. We reserve the right to remove, or to disable access to, any contribution which we deem to be potentially defamatory of any person or which we deem unlawful or in violation of any third-party rights.

Content standards published on The Pioneer's Toolkit

These content standards apply to each part of a contribution as well as to its whole. The content standards must be complied with in spirit as well as to the letter. Wynne-Jones IP Limited will determine, in its discretion, whether a contribution breaches the content standards.

A contribution must:

Be accurate (where it states facts), be genuinely held (where it states opinions), comply with the law applicable in England and Wales and in any country from which it is posted and be relevant.

A contribution must not:

Be defamatory of any person, be obscene, offensive, hateful or inflammatory, promote sexually explicit material, promote violence, promote discrimination based on race, sex, religion, nationality, disability, sexual orientation or age, disclose the name, address, telephone, mobile or fax number, e-mail address or any other personal data in respect of any individual, infringe any copyright, database right or trade mark of any other person, breach any legal duty owed to a third party, such as a contractual duty or a duty of confidence, be in contempt of court, be likely to harass, upset, embarrass, alarm or annoy any other person, impersonate any person, or misrepresent your identity or affiliation with any person, give the impression that the contribution emanates from Wynne-Jones IP Ltd if this is not the case or, advocate, promote, incite any third party to commit, or assist any unlawful or criminal act.

Copyright

It is your responsibility to comply with all applicable copyright laws and Wynne-Jones IP Ltd cannot be held accountable should any content violate copyright laws. In the event of a violation, you must notify Wynne-Jones IP Ltd immediately and the content will be removed from The Pioneer's Toolkit within 24 hours.

By submitting a contribution containing your own copyright to the Pioneer's Toolkit, you agree to grant Wynne-Jones IP Ltd a non-exclusive licence to use that contribution. Although you will continue to own the copyright in your contribution, Wynne-Jones IP Ltd will have the right to freely use, edit, alter, reproduce, publish and/or distribute the material contained in your contribution. This licence will be free of charge, perpetual but not capable of sub-licence. Wynne-Jones IP Ltd may exercise all copyright and publicity rights in the material contained in your contribution in all jurisdictions, to their full extent and for the full period for which any such rights exist in that material.
